Schonert's Corporate Catering

Front of House Team Member

Hiring for Fall with Light Summer Hours Available

Do you enjoy interacting with coworkers and clients? Do you have an eye for detail and organization? Schonert's is looking to add Front of House (FOH) team members to help with printing, packaging, brewing, shipping, and deliveries.

About Schonert's

Schonert's specializes in premium handcrafted products, including pastries, coffee, sandwiches, salads, pies, cheesecakes, and feasting trays. With a commitment to reliable, relational, and intentional service, we take pride in delivering exceptional experiences to our clients.

Job Description

As a Front of House Team Member at Schonert's, you will play a vital role in ensuring that orders are fulfilled accurately, arrive on time, meet customer expectations, and align with our company values. Your daily responsibilities will encompass various tasks, including printing labels, packing tubs, placing stickers on products, wrapping cookies, shipping, delivering, and more.

This role is split into three specializations: packaging, brewing, and expediting. As a member of this team, you will be fully trained in each of these categories, with the opportunity to specialize once fully trained.

Requirements

- Open-minded and eager to learn
- Team player with strong collaboration skills
- Part-time availability, Monday through Saturday
- Flexibility in working hours, with early mornings expected
- Experience is a plus but not required

Position Details

- Part-time role with flexible scheduling

May 1st, 2024

- Weekly hours ranging from 15-30 per week
- Opportunities for specialization after training

Additional Benefits

- Free Lunches
- Access to Espresso Machine
- Generous Trips

How to Apply

If you are ready to enhance your skills, thrive in a fast-paced and encouraging environment, and contribute to a locally owned and operated business, we invite you to submit the interest form on our website at www.schonertsc.com. Once we receive your form, we will promptly schedule an interview. Interviews will be conducted over the next one to two weeks, with an intended start date at the beginning of February.
